Organisation

Twelve units of competency are the minimum required for this qualification, units of competency were selected following the “Qualification Rules” consisting in select units of competency from the list provided in the SIT16 Training Package (see SIT16 Training Package available at training.gov.au); units of competency have been taken from: Working effectively with others Units, Social and cultural sensitivity Units, Safe work practice Units, Hygiene and basic business documentation Units.

The program is organised in “clusters” in order to provide a strategic structure to improve effectiveness of delivery and assessment procedures and activities.

The program covers basic – level level Hospitality topics, which form the foundation & principle modules for individuals who intend to progress onto higher-level qualifications or enter the workforce.

Learners are provided with strong specific information and training on wide range of areas around the Hospitality Services Industry, such as: Working with others, safe and hygienic work practice and basic hospitality business documentation skills, and sustainability.

Intakes dates are as per the published CTI ongoing (rolling intake) schedule. For Hospitality subjects CTI delivers subjects in a loop system ensuring candidates always will have the possibility to complete the qualification within the 26 weeks period, no matter at which point they enter.

RPL

Students who hold a relevant certificate, will need to submit verified Certificate/Statement of Attainment (issued by an RTO) for recognition purposes. Students with either a Certificate or Statement of Attainment for Certificate II and/or individual units will be exempted from common or elective units.

LLN

Language Literacy and Numeracy (LLN)

- Canterbury Technical Institute is committed to provide education opportunities to its students from non-English-speaking background (NESB).
- Canterbury Technical Institute will use enrolment procedures aimed at ensuring that only students with the requisite LLN skills enrol in its courses as stated in its Assessing student’s qualifications and English language proficiency Policy and Procedure.
- Canterbury Technical Institute recognises the need to pay particular attention to issues related to language in its training and assessment, in order to cater to the needs of the largest section of its target market, i.e. NESB students.
- Canterbury Technical Institute will take all reasonable measures to ensure that its staff are aware of the students’ specific learning needs and make reasonable adjustments to training and assessment practices to cater for such needs.
- Canterbury Technical Institute reserves the right to refer students whose English language proficiency is demonstrably inadequate for their course to enrol in a package course comprising an ELICOS course of sufficient duration in an approved English Language Teaching (ELT) Centre.
- If after the commencement of a program it is identified that a student has a Language, Literacy and Numeracy (LLN) issue; our staff can discuss different ways of conducting training and assessment to assist students to access additional tutorial (generally on Fridays) with the Head Trainer.

Students requiring any assistance or support with language, literacy or numeracy should speak confidentially with their trainers and assessor who will call on the Head Trainer and/or other assessors for assistance and guidance as required.
